Sky Mountain RV

Chama, NM

The Fourth of July weekend was spent in the beautiful mountain area of Chama, NM. Most of the group spent Friday night at the San Felipe Casino in Albuquerque where Dan and Kiyoko walked away with enough money to cover their mini vacation.

We kicked off the weekend with our Friday "soup and sandwich" dinner on Saturday evening. In addition to the soup and sandwiches, we had an amazing cake (compliments of Linda) to celebrate Merle's birthday. Things wrapped up pretty quick after dinner as Linda made a hospital run to Pagosa Springs with Suzanna and Edgar, because Edgar was dealing with intense neck pain.

Sunday, The Parmans and Becks took a day trip into Pagosa Springs to check out the carnival which was in town. Tim and Ginny took a day trip to the Rio Grande Gorge and Taos. Jill spent a day in Durango. We gathered around a campfire and roasted marshmallows to make s'mores.

We decided to go out for dinner Monday evening, and we enjoyed a wonderful fare at the High Country Restaurant.

Tuesday, the Becks, Parmans and Jill took the Chama train trip between Chama and Antonocito. The Beaulieus, Brotts, and Barbara spent a lazy day at camp, but were treated to root beer floats served to the entire camp by one of the regular guests. Dinner was barbecued brats and fixings. Of course, we had to finish the evening with a campfire and smores.
